DEFENDANTS' OFFER OF JUDGMENT

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 68, the defendants, the City of New Haven, John DeStefano, Jr., Karen DuBois-Walton, Thomas Ude, Jr., Tina Burgett, Boise Kimber, Malcolm Webber and Zelma Tirado, hereby make the following offer of judgment to plaintiff Frank Ricci in full and final satisfaction of any and all claims brought in this lawsuit, including but not limited to claims brought under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution, 42 U.S.C. § 1985 and the Connecticut state law claim of intentional infliction of emotional distress: the total sum of $125,518.99 in cash and additional pension benefits of substantial value as full satisfaction of any and all claims brought in this lawsuit, as more fully described below. If accepted, $50,207.60 will be payable by August 31, 2011 and $75,311.39 will be payable by August 31, 2012. As further described below, the additional pension benefits will be available upon retirement.

As to back pay, the defendants offer $40,219.10.

As to interest on the back pay, the defendants offer $3,033.04.

To address any tax ramifications of the back pay award referenced above, the defendants offer a gross-up payment of $5,000.

As to any other claims for monetary damages and/or any other form of relief, except for attorney fees and costs¹, the defendants offer $77,266.85 and three (3) additional years of service in the New Haven Department of Fire Services (“NHFD”) for pension purposes. For example, if Frank Ricci were to retire after 20 years of service in the NHFD, if he accepted this offer, he would be eligible to receive pension benefits equivalent to someone who had served 23 years in the NHFD.

¹ The defendants are simultaneously serving a separate Offer of Judgment as to attorney fees and costs.

In sum, if accepted, judgment will enter against all defendants and in favor of Frank Ricci, as set forth above.
